Welcome. Thank you for your interest in Fulton Adventist University College.

Admission to Fulton is available to any student who meets the academic and character requirements of the Institution who expresses willingness to cooperate with its policies. As the College is operated by the Seventh-day Church, many of its students are Seventh-day Adventists. However, no particular religious commitment is required for admission; any qualified student who is comfortable with its religious, social, and cultural atmosphere may be admitted. FAUC does not discriminate on the grounds of race, gender, colour, creed, national, or ethnic origin, disability, or other legally protected characteristics.

Although church membership is not a pre-requisite for admission, applicants are expected to abide by the rules and regulations of the College.
